
Subject: English Language Arts

Level: Infant Two

Strand: Writing – (Grammar)

Topic: Describing Repeated Actions (Present Habitual Tense)

By the end of this worksheet, you will be able to:

- Use the correct verb form to indicate actions that someone does regularly or repeatedly.

Key Points:

- A Habit is something that we do over and over or repeatedly.
- The Present Habitual Tense is used to describe an action that someone does over and over or repeatedly.

Example: (Every Tuesday, she paints a new wall.)

- Time Stamps for repeated actions include "Every day", "Always", "On Mondays", "Every week".
- When we talk about an action that he, she or it does over and over or repeatedly, we usually place an 's' at the end of the action word.

Examples: He walks to school every day.

John walks to school every day.

She sings at church every Saturday.

Jane sings at church every Saturday.

It eats grass all the time.

The cow eats grass all the time.
